

Informed Consent Agreement

(Signed permission must be returned for your child to participate in Nature Day Camp)

Wild Life!

July 19- July 23

Employees and other adult agents of the Tualatin Riverkeepers are herewith given the authority on the date stated above to consent to any medical treatment, and to make direct contact with those listed on the Tualatin Riverkeepers medical form, in either or both cases as they believe may be required by my child in place of and with the same authority as myself.

In addition, the below signed acknowledges and fully understands that each participant will engage in activities that involve risk of injury which might result not only from their own actions, but also inactions or negligence of others, the rules of play, or the condition of the premises or of any equipment used. Further, there may be other risks not known to us or not reasonably foreseeable at this time. By signing below you assume all the foregoing risks and accept personal responsibility for the damage following such injury, permanent disability or death. You release, waive, discharge and covenant not to sue the Tualatin Riverkeepers its respective administrators, directors, agents, and other employees of the organization, volunteers, other participants, sponsoring agencies, advertisers and if applicable, owners and leasers of the premises used to conduct the event, all of which are hereinafter referred to as "releases", from demands, losses or damages on account of injury, including death or damage to property, caused or alleged to be caused in whole or part by the negligence of the releases or otherwise.

The Tualatin Riverkeepers reserves the right to use student drawings, journal excerpts and photos taken during the day for promotional purposes.
